Other programs in the market	Our programs
Program ends and most of the things imparted ends there	Skills taught are imbibed for a lifetime with new good habits formed during the session
Expenditures incurred gives you temporary motivation	This is an investment that grounds you in self-awareness for life
Gimmicks used to keep the participants fascinated	The sessions are imparted with the best intentions to contribute value to participants
A lot of free stuff is given to attract participants	No free stuff is given, as everything shared is valuable and contributing to your life for generations to come
Activities focused only on developing your external self or a few areas of life, giving you temporary fixes and momentary satisfaction	Sessions filled with lots of powerful mind techniques, that address your overall performance and growth, while transforming you subconsciously
Amature or inexperienced people are also turning trainers teaching for money without working on self nor concerned about their participants time or money	Passionate Professionals and Best industry experts with tremendous experience, train with dedication for the upliftment of society and humanity at large
The fee is too high compared to the value added even if it looks small	The fee is peanuts compared to the value added for life per participant
The only information is parted which is freely available on the internet too	Experience of decades of several masters in the transformation industry is shared fully, which helps you to transform faster
PPT and fact sheets are displayed. Learning is theoretical	Experiential learning happens that changes the limiting beliefs in your life
Different levels of training are there are to learn like basic, intermediate, advance etc	All in one program, where past is cleared, the present focus is natural and the future is designed too.
The trainer is commercial and knowledge is added	The trainer is a sincere meditator and guides you from inner wisdom and intuition, to take ownership of your life and create your life on your terms.
